

Omuz: A Solidarity Network

OMUZ

9 Apr 2021

SALT joins in the series with a conversation on Omuz , a solidarity network – initiated by a group of people working in the arts and culture, who believe in the urgency of unreciprocated resource sharing and cooperation – which will only be sustainable through the support of others. Omuz was established to respond to the economic precarities and inequalities, which became acutely visible during the COVID-19 pandemic, and to strengthen the network of solidarity.

This recording is part of THE CONSTITUENT MUSEUM IN DIALOGUE, a series of conversations discussing the emancipatory possibilities and limits of museums. Find related talks, and read more on The Constituent Museum in Dialogue.

Produced by SALT, 2021

The views and opinions published in this section mirror the principles of academic freedom and do not necessarily reflect the views or positions of the L'Internationale confederation and its members.

